

Akerman Tax

Akerman advises domestic and foreign corporations, partnerships, individuals and nonprofit institutions on a wide range of federal, state and local tax issues, tax audits and tax litigation.

Our team represents clients on complex transactions and adds value by creating tax efficient structures and offering innovative and practical solutions. We routinely advise clients on the formation and maintenance of their business entities, and develop tax planning solutions to help them achieve their business goals.

We also litigate complex and varied income, sales and use, and property tax issues in administrative proceedings and state and federal court.

Practice Highlights

- The team works on maintaining relationships with federal, state, and local government officials to keep clients informed of key legislative tax developments
- In-depth knowledge in addressing tax accounting issues to clients in the retail, communications, financial institutions, utilities, and healthcare industries
- Routinely advise clients concerning entering new countries/markets, establishing foreign subsidiaries, transfer pricing, planning for repatriation of earnings, and foreign tax credit utilization
- Represent clients before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on international matters and international tax compliance
- Formation of corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, joint ventures, business trusts, and REITs
- Provide advice involving cash, accrual, installment method, change in accounting method, and taxable year inquiries
